SASKATCHEWAN
DIRECTORY!

At the request of a number of influential citizens of the district, I have decided, on or about the first of 1888, to issue a directory of the District of Saskatchewan.

It will embrace, besides the usual matter contained in such publications, sketches of the rise and progress of the various settlements throughout the district, setting forth their natural resources, and giving a crop report for the year 1887.

It will also contain views of the town of Prince Albert, and of Battleford, an alphabetical list of the actual settlers through out the district, giving their place of residence as near as possible, and post-office, church, and other directions.

No pains will be spared to make it thoroughly reliable as a source of reference for business men and others.

Advertisements will be inserted at the rate of 10 cts. per line, or $7 per page. The subscription price to advertisers will be fifty cents per copy; to those not advertising $1.

Orders for copies of Directory may be directed to Ed. J. Cann or T. N. Campbell, Stationers, Prince Albert.

Orders for advertisements must be directed to SASKATOON.

The second annual exhibition, under the auspices of the Central Saskatchewan Agricultural Society, was held at Saskatoon on Wednesday last, the 21st inst. The display of roots, grain and cattle was remarkably fine, some particularly good breeds of Jersey and Grade being exhibited. The cattle shown here last year by the Caswells of Clarke's Crossing, and which were awarded prizes as thoroughbred short horns, were pronounced by one of the judges as "scrubs," and it is generally admitted that the judge knew whereof he affirmed. The department of fancy work, native fruits and jam, bread and butter was well sustained, and redound much to the credit of the ladies of the Temperance Colony. Everything passed off pleasantly, and with the exception of one or two chronic grumblers, all seemed well satisfied with the decisions arrived at by the judges in the various classes. Mr. Copland, the agent of the Colonization Company, showed twenty-four different varieties of potatoes for which he was awarded first prize. Mr. J. F. Clarke, of Clarke's Crossing, was the most successful individual exhibitor, and carried off some twenty-four premiums for garden and field products, his wife taking first prize for butter out of a large number of competitors. The Jersey herd of Mr. Smith, of Saskatoon, was particularly admired, and took a well deserved first. In horses, Messrs. Lake Bros., of Clarke's Crossing, took first on single carriage horses, general purpose yearling, and stallion; and a special prize for double trotting team. Mr. J. W. Garrison's handsome matched greys took first for team of carriage horses. It would take too much space to particularize, but the above will give our readers some idea of what the good people of the Temperance Colony have already accomplished. The day's business ended with a very enjoyable dancing party in the evening.

Thursday of last week the dwelling of Messrs. Horne, west side of Saskatoon, was destroyed by fire, with all its contents. The cause of the fire is a mystery, as the occupants had been away from home fully seven hours before the occurrence. The Messrs. Horne lost everything they owned, except the clothes they stood in, and great sympathy is felt for them. They are made of the right kind of stuff however, and do not indulge in vain regrets, but are pushing along, determined to redeem the loss by industry and perseverance in the future.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 23, 1887.

This is the season of the year when a person should guard carefully against prairie fires. This year, in particular, there is a much heavier body of grass than for several years past owing to the frequent rains during the past summer, and now the grass everywhere is dry and withered so that the utmost caution should be taken by everyone not to allow fire to get started on our broad and grassy covered prairie. The great body of dry grass, with such a wind as we had a few nights ago, and our country would be laid desolate in one night. Fires may occur accidently, carelessly or perhaps intentionally, but it is well that the farmers should guard against this devouring element by having their stacks of grain, hay and buildings properly protected. Don't put off this important duty till to-morrow but let the first thing you do be for the protection of your crops and buildings from danger of prairie fires.

In British politics the Irish question is still the engrossing subject It is a wonder that people are not sick and tired of it. But what is to be done? The Irish Nationalists say that they are determined to have their own way and a majority of the representatives of the British Parliament say they shall not, and either the National League or the British Parliament must rule. The Irish people cannot serve two masters. What seems to be on the cards is a coalition cabinet. Some few Liberal Unionists may dissent, and it is certain Mr. Chamberlain will not enter a coalition cabinet, but the Marquis of Hartington would surely do so, holding the great bulk of his followers in the house. The first move would be to rechristen the party and it would likely be called the Liberal Conservative party in order to soothe the conciences of those Unionists who still call themselves Liberals. What the Marquis of Hartington said the other day as to the necessity of closing up the ranks and getting the machinery of organization into order shows that he sees the wisdom of a closer union of the two wings of the Unionist force. Mr. Gladstone, pointing to the by-elections, is sanguine that the next election will see a Liberal and Parnellite sweep; but Mr. Gladstone is always sanguine and the by-elections are deceiving. In the breasts of many Englishmen there is a feeling that Mr. Gladstone has gone too far, and his surrender to the Nationalists on the understanding that he is to get their votes to turn out the Salisbury Government is looked upon with feelings of mortification.

Mr. Goldwin Smith's letter on Manitoba, in the Mail, is suggestive on one point. He says: "Much of the land around the capital [Winnipeg] is still lying untilled. It is held by speculators at prices which have driven settlement far westward, to the injury of not only Manitoba, but of the setter himself, who is thus carried away both from his market and his center of distribution, besides losing the general advantages of neigoborhood." It would be instructive to know how much the stagnation incident to this state of things has contributed to this present discontent in Manitoba; and how many of these speculative holders of land are now engaged in semi-rebellion, agitating for Manitoba's rights. No doubt, as Mr. Smith says, Winnipeg, having reached a certain size, is sure to go on growing, as is the way of cities. She will "grow and live to laugh at the menace of the C. P. R. which threatens her with ruin if she will not succumb to Disallowance." Nevertheless, Manitoba is now pursuing a course that cannot be permitted by any civilized Government. The building of the Red River Railroad is an act of open defiance of the law; and while, doubtless, the forcible stoppage of the work by the Dominion authorities, if practicable—which is not—would be an act of arbitrary power that could not commend itself to Canadians, still it will never do in a Confederation such as this to sanction the rampant triumph of Sectionalism over the Dominion authority. Let us have conciliation and compromise by all means if that may do; but it would be a bad precedent in possible future difficulties in other provinces to conciliate and compromise as the price of return to duty as Canadian citizens.

On Thursday next the Lorne Agricultural Society will hold their fourth annual exhibition, and from present appearances, if the weather proves favorable, a chance will be given the people of this district to witness the finest and largest display of cattle, sheep, dairy products, garden vegetables, field roots and fancy work in the North West Territories. The products of the soil that will be shown will convince them that the district of Lorne ranks second to none in the Territories. The exhibit of cattle and sheep will be large, and we have no doubt a credit to any country. Cattle raising is carried on in this district in a very psofitable way. Farmers here, no doubt, have to feed stock part of the wintor, but then they loose very few, unlike western ranches, where the death rate varies from twenty to fifty per cent. The sheep industry here is also assuming considerable proportions, and is found remunerative. The Society offer a liberal prize list and valuable silver cup for the best pen of sheep, and the competition thereby made is inducing several sheep raisers to import fresh stock from some of the select Canadian flocks. In grain the competition for the Hon. L. Clarke's valuable silver cup promises to be lively. And last on the prize list, but not least, is the ladies' departments. Valuable special prizes have been offered in both departments for different kinds of home-made wool productions and for the fine works of the needle, and from reports of the quantity and quality, this department will be well represented. The committees are hard at work arranging to have everything prepared for the convenience of exhibitors. The Harris & Co. machinery building is to be used, with the addition of a large tent at the back, which will make a spacious exhibition room, with sufficient light. The grounds to be used are those between Mr. Maclise's yard and the telegraph office, where large show rings for cows and cattle will be made, and pens for sheep and pigs. The building will open to the public at 1 p.m. The judging on the grounds will commence at the same hour. The P. A. C. Band will during the afternoon delight the people with sweet strains of music. It will be advisable for all exhibitors to make their entries before Wednesday night. The Society's annual dinner will be held at the Queen's at 7:30 p.m., and mine host Oram will provide for the inner man in his usual sumptuous style.

TERRITORIAL NEWS

REGINA.

From the Leader, Sept. 6.

A new bandmaster, Mr. F. A. Bagley, late leader of the Calgary band, has taken hold of the N. W. M. P. band.

One of the Leader staff saw a pumpkin over three feet in circumference last week.

Quite a building boom is promised the coming fall. In fact it has already commenced. This is owing to the good agricultural results this season, and the encouraging prospects of the town generally.

Four constables and a corporal were brought from Calgary last week, to serve a sentence of six months. They were charged with allowing an Indian to escape. Lo kept the policemen at bay with an axe, threatening to brain the first man who attempted recapture him. The policemen claimed that they were not aware that firing on the Indian was within the law, and so after following the fugitive some four miles, and remonstrating with him in vain, they allowed him to go.

CALGARY.

From the Tribune Sept, 9.

Father Leduc arrived from Edmonton Monday to take charge of the Calgary Church. Building operations will commence at once.

The Bishop of Saskatchewan will be in Calgary for two Sundays, the 18th and 25th inst. On the 25th he will admit Mr. Stocken, of the Blackfoot reserve, to Deacon's orders.

Father Cocolo, from the Island of Corsica, who has been for many years engaged in mission work in British Columbia, arrived here on Monday and was a guest at the Mission. Report speaks well of Father Cocolo's services at Kamloops, Donald and other places in the mountains.

Archbishop Tache, of St. Boniface, Archbishop Fabre, of Montreal, and Bishop Dertonetz, of Westminster, arrived from the east Tuesday night, in a private car. They laid off here and spent a day at the Mission. To-night they go to the Coast. Rev. Father Lacombe accompanies them.

LETHBRIDGE.

From the News Sept. 7.

Haying and harvesting is about completed around here. Owing to the late rains the season is a little backward.

Quite a number of police from Macleod along with those called from here last week, left that place for the Blackfoot Crossing Sunday last.

Mr. C. M. Turner had his horse stolen from the picket line near the Terrace on Sunday morning last. Circumstances point to Indians as thives, the picket line being found in the coulee leading to the river, where it had evidently been dropped by the guilty parties.

A strike took place among the brakemen on the railway here on Tuesday evening, and the train on Saturday morning went out without any. The trouble was amicably settled on Saturday and everything is now running smoothly.

The authorities did not deem it advisable to take Deerfoot at the Blackfoot reserve on August 30th. It is evident that the Indians are masters of the situation and can demand the best of treatment from the Government. It is feared that the effect of letting Deerfoot go free will have a bad effect, and that the Blackfeet will be all the harder to control in the future. As long as they get all the grub they want, though, and are allowed to steal at will they are not likely to court any more exciting pastime. Crowfoot has just returned from a trip across the line where Canadian Blackfeet and Bloods have been giving trouble. It is said that he went as an emissary of the Government to try and bring the wanderers home. — Calgary Herald, Sept. 2.

GENERAL NEWS.

London, Sept. 5.—It is now almost certain that Ayoub Khan has succeeded in reaching Russia, and if this be true, there is no doubt he will very shortly make his appearance on the Afghan frontier at the head of a formidable band of followers.

Paris, Sept. 7.—Sarah Beruhart has just returned from a pilgrimage to the shrine of the Virgin at Lourdes, and there is much speculation among the Parisians as to whether her visit is not a precursor to her retirement to a nunnery.

London, Sept. 7.—The August emigration to British North America was 4,835, being 1,200 more than during the same month last year. During the year the increase has been over 12,000.

Lewiston, Minn., Sept. 7.—There is no little excitement at Enterprise, a small village three miles south of here, over the nightly appearance of ghosts, which is vouched for by some of the most reliable citizens. Several who made light of the matter have been shadowed and one citizen has nearly lost his reason after being followed. It seems some time ago a man was murdered in the village and every family who has occupied the dwelling where the murder was committed has met with many death losses. This is thought to be the cause.

Paris, Sept. 7.—The newspapers all agree that the mobilizing experiment is a success. They say that if France had been in such a condition for war in 1870 as she is now, Germany would have found her match. Two men were arrested at Toulouse while taking notes of the movements of the troops on suspicion of being German spies. They proved, however, to be reporters.

London, Sept. 7.—A new republican League is about to be started here with headquarters in London and branches in all parts of the country. The Queen's jubilee notwithstanding, republicanism seems to be gaining ground here, and what the movement has lost in depth of late years it has made good in expansion.

London, Sept. 9.—Violent rain and hail storms have prevailed in the northern part of England, and in Scotland in many sections, entirely destroying the standing crops.

Washington, Sept. 7.—The report that the German consul in New York is examining men for the enlistment in the German army creates some surprise in the departments. Great caution is observed in expressing opinion about it, but it is evident that the matter is likely to be subject to some official enquiry.

Berlin, Sept. 8.—An American lady has presented to Bismark a pipe of peace, which has been in the family of an American Indian chief from time immemorial, as a token of the German chancellor's services in preserving peace.

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—H. H. McIntyre, superintendent of the Alaska commercial company, has just returned from north and says a snow covered mountain seven thousand feet high on Acoutan Island, Oualaska, a month ago began to belch forth fire and ashes and has been steadily at it ever since.

New York, Sept. 8.—The steamship Wisconsin, of the Union line, arrived here to-day, having on board 415 Mormons, composed of natives of all European countries. After registering at Castle Garden they started on their way to Utah.

Quebec, Sept. 11.—A singular incident attended the swearing of Sir Andrew Stewart as administrator of the province during the absence of Hon. Mr. Masson. It appears that Charles McGee, clerk of the Privy Council, arrived in the city for the express purpose of administering to Sir Andrew the oath of office. He drove out to that gentlemen's country residence and found he had just left for a short ride through the fields. He asked the direction Sir Andrew had taken, and found him shortly afterwards galloping gaily by "mead and by copse." He informed him of the honor that had just befallen him, and insisted upon an immediate return to the council chamber to be sworn. Sir Andrew answered that he was beginning to enjoy his ride immensely, and wished to know from McGee whether it would not be well to take the oath of office there and then. The clerk of the Privy Council consented, and Sir Andrew Stewart was sworn in as administrator of the province of Quebec on horseback.

Halifax, Sept. 9.—A great gale swept the fishing bank on the 3rd inst., and all the incoming vessels report having suffered great losses. Many vessels were wrecked and lives lost. The schooner Ocean Pride passed on the banks floating coffin, with all the crew lying dead in the cabin. The Boston schooner Nellie Woodbury had six of her crew drowned. Scores of vessels had their decks swept and incurred loss of boats, bulwarks, sails, etc.

By the Trustees of Colleston School District No. 9 of the North West Territories.

Whereas it is deemed expedient by the Trustees of Colleston School District No. 9 of the Northwest Territories that the sum of Six Hundred Dollars should be borrowed on the security of the said School District, by the issue of Debentures repayable to the Bearer in ten equal consecutive annual instalments from the issue thereof, with interest at the rate of eight per centum per annum, for the following purposes, namely: For building a schoolhouse, fencing playground, digging a well, and paying the cost of transfer of land to the trustees. Therefore, notice is here by given, by the Trustees of said District, that a poll will be opened by the undersigned, chairman of the said Trustees, at Mr. George McBeath's house, on Saturday, the 17th day of September, 1887, at the hour of ten o'clock a.m., and will continue open until four o'clock p.m. of the same day when the votes of those duly qualified to vote thereon will be taken for or against raising the said sum of Six Hundred Dollars by way of a loan on the security of the said School District, as hereinbefore set forth. The qualification of voters is set forth in the following oath, which persons desiring to vote must take, if required:—"I, A.B., do solemnly swear that I am a bona fide resident ratepayer of Colleston School District No. 9 of the Northwest Territories; that I have paid the school taxes assessed against me on the last revised assessment roll of the said District; that I am of the full age of twenty-one years; that I am not an unenfranchised Indian; that I have not voted before at this election, and I have not received any reward, either directly or indirectly, nor have I any hope of receiving any reward for voting at this time and place. So help me God." Of which all persons interested are hereby notified, and are required to govern themselves accordingly.

EXCHANGE OF COURTESIES.

A very pleasing incident occurred in connection with the meeting of the Hudson's Bay Company's facters. Reverend Father Cloutier, of St. Boniface, requested Mr. H. Belanger, the company's factor at Cumberland House, to see the commissionner and secure his consent to a meeting between himself (Father Cloutier) and the council. Mr. Wrigley very readily made the arrangement and Father Cloutier, on behalf of His Grace Archbishop Tache, addressed the members of the council at some length, thanking them in the warmest and most eloquent terms for uniform kindness towards the missionaries and clergy of the church in this great country. For very many years the closest relations had existed between the company's officers and the clergy of the Roman Catholic church, and to the urbanity of the former was to a considerable extent due the tenacity with which the clergy clung to the work. Otherwise their labors would have been very much greater and their hardships more severe.

Commissioner Wrigley, on behalf of the company, reciprocated the kind expressions and spoke of the deep respect in which his grace the archbishop had always been held by the officers of the company.

Hon. Lawrence Clarke also spoke of the frindly feelings which had always existed between the clergy and the Hudson's Bay officers, and he heartily reciprocated anything that Father Cloutier had said.

The incident was regarded as one of the most pleasing during the meeting of the council.

FOR THE NORTH POLE.

Mr. W. H. Guilder, the Arctic explorer, who passed through Winnipeg last fall on his way to the North Pole, and again visited the city last spring after abandoning the expedition, has not by any means lost heart; and in an elaborate article supplied to the American press, he announces his intention of trying again, and maps out his plan of action. Last yeear he took with him as far as Fort Churchill 4,000 pounds of baggage; and he will therefore in his second trip, have no serious difficulties until he reaches that point. From there he will pass by way of the coast to North Hudson's Bay, where he will fall in with the Esquimaux, and he will induce a party of them to accompahy him to Baffiins Bay. He will proceed along the north coast of Hudson's Bay and the west shore of Rowe's Welcome to Repulse Bay, the extreme northern portion of the north arm of Hudson's Bay. Thence through the Frozen Straits and by the east cost of Melville peninsula to Igloolik, an Esquimaux Settlement upon an island on the northeast point of that peninsula. From there a trip across Cockburn Island will be made to Pond Islet where the old Colonel thinks the real difficulties of the trip will begin. He will then strike out along the wes shore of Baffin's Bay for Cape Sabine. He anticipates that it will take two years to reach Cape Sabine from North Hudson's Bay, and there he will have to pass one winter before starting north to Fort Conger. Lieut. (now General) Greeley's old station. There he will find provisions left behind by that party sufficient to support twenty-five men for a year, and can depend upon supplementing this supply with game, principally musk ox.

After spending a winter at Fort Conger he will make a dash for the pole. He will take two sleds, one a heavy sled, with stores and material, and the other a much lighter one. The two will keep together as long as it is possible for the larger sled to continue. This will then be left as a base to fall back upon in case of necessity, and with the lighter one, stripped of everything except the most absolute necessities, he will continue to proceed until the goal is reached or until he can go no farther.

After this, unless he feels like taking permanent quarters in the land of snow and ice, he will return to Cape Sabine where he will catch whalers and come back to civilization. He will take not merely male Esquimaux with him, but their entire families, as the experience o other Arctic explorers has shown that Esquimaux will not leave their families for more than a few days at a time.

The colonel does not say what routef he will take to reach Fort Churchill, whether he will again pay Winnipeg a visit, or reach that point by whaling vessels. From what he said when he was here last spring he will adopt the latter alternative.

The steamer Northwest arrived at the forks of the river on Friday last. From there she will return to Cumberland, where she will remain during the winter. Part of her crew returned to Winnipeg, and Capt. Dugal came on to Prince Albert, where with his family he will remain during the winter.

One of the children of Mr. Choisel de la Gorgendiere, Clerk of the Court, was playing yesterday near a barrel full of water sunk in the ground at the corner of his house, when she fell head-first in the barrel. The shrieks of the little girl, although almost inaudible, brought the attention of the mother who was busy in her kitchen, and flying to the rescue of her child arrived just in time to save the little Alvine. She soon recovered; the only results being a fright and a cold bath. Mr. de la Gorgendiere removed the barrel at once, and says after coming down the Saskatchewan all the way from Edmonton in a skiff and succeeding in bringing his family safe, he don t pretend to have any of his children drowned in a barrel.

We clip the following from the Saskatchewan Herald:—"The Venerable Archdeacon John A. McKay and family left for Prince Albert by steamer on Wednesday morning. He has been appointed Warden and Divinity Professor of Emmanuel College. During his recent visit to Winnipeg to attend the meeting of the Provincial Synod, he received from St. John's College, University of Manitoba, the degree of Doctor of Divinity. Every effort will be made to put the College in the front rank as an institution for the training of natives as teachers and catechists. The College will have as heretofore a collegiate school attached to it for the training of boys in all branches of education in connection with the Church of England." We congratulate the Ven. Archdeacon upon the distinguished honor, Doctor of Divinity, conferred upon him by St. John's College, University of Manitoba, and trust he may be long spared to enjoy this well merited and distinguished honor.

London, Sept. 10.—Arrangements are now perfected for the removal of the remains of Napoleon III, and the Prince Imperial from Chiselhurst to the new mortuary crypt in the mausoleum on Farnborough hill, but the date of the ceremony is not yet stated.

No confirmation has been received at the State department at Washington, of the dispatch published from the pacific coast a week ago stating that some additional sealers have been seized in Behring Sea. There has been ample time for Capt. Shepard, of the Rush, to have reported additional seizures if they had been made; from internal evidence it is assumed the dispatch was really a duplication of the facts previously reported, especially as the names of the vessels are not given. Consequently up to the present time there are only four seizures of British sealers. In the absence of the exact text of the interpellation addressed to Sir J Furguson and the exact languane of his reply, it cannot be attached to interference derived from his answer that the Behring Sea question will be included in the fishery negotiations.
